

Outcomes for the Adult Evening and Online Interdisciplinary Studies Major

An Alverno student is expected successfully and repeatedly to demonstrate the ability:

- to use multiple discipline frameworks competently;
- to be a responsible practitioner in the major;
- to demonstrate knowledge of and respect for diverse cultures, communities, and societies;
- to engage in creative strategies for learning;
- to collaborate effectively with others;
- to advocate for a point of view;
- to give evidence of a commitment to lifelong learning; and
- to use self-reflection as a tool for integration and connection.