Position: Instructor – AEO Business Program

Department: School of Professional Studies

Hours per Week: Part-time

Alverno College is a private liberal arts college with an internationally acclaimed ability-based program and diverse student body. A Catholic College founded by the School Sisters of Saint Francis, we are dedicated to the undergraduate education of women while serving men and women in our adult and graduate programs. Our low instructor-to-student ratio and collaborative faculty contribute to a positive learning environment. We provide students with real-life, hands-on experiences in the classroom, in study abroad opportunities and in professional internships related to their major. These experiences, among others, have resulted in Alverno College being recognized among the top four Midwest Regional Universities in the 2018 U.S. News & World Report “Strong Commitment to Teaching” category for the eighth consecutive year.

The School of Professional Studies seeks applicants for an Adjunct Instructor to teach two separate courses: Operations and Managerial Finance for our AEO Business Program.

Qualifications and Education

- Experienced professional with a background in operational and/or financial management.
- Must have strong skills in quantitative analysis and literacy to teach courses in business operations, quantitative business models, and managerial finance.
- Experienced teaching in an online environment.
- Master’s degree required.

Successful candidates will have a demonstrated commitment to promoting diversity, inclusion, and multicultural competence in an educational and work environment and must be willing to contribute to the College’s strategic plan of inclusion.
