

Character Education Conference June 16, 2016

DESCRIPTION:

Persons participating in the Character Education Conference may earn 1 graduate credit. They will write a 2-3 page reflection on how the keynote sessions and breakouts contributed to their thinking about character education and social-emotional learning and also address how they plan to work in their school and/or classroom in the next year to promote practices that will build a positive culture for learning and support their students' growth as whole persons.

OUTCOMES

Participants will:

1. Make clear connections between key points of presentations and their application in the participants' school settings.
2. Set meaningful goals for improving their own practice in working with students and school staff to support positive school culture.
3. Read What's Under Your Cape: SUPERHEROES of the Character Kind and then design or modify 2-3 lesson plans to incorporate character education. You will receive a copy of the book at the conference.

The reflection papers will be due on or before July 15th.

One graduate credit will be offered to conference participants through Alverno College at a fee of $130. Please see registration form on next page.
