Opposing Viewpoints In Context
Online library of current event topics - facts and arguments providing comprehensive information on today's social issues.

Path to Opposing Viewpoints in Context

THE SOURCE: The Library’s Electronic Databases

THE PATH: Go to the Library’s web page: http://depts.alverno.edu/library/
Find “Search for Articles in Journals & Newspapers”
Click on Databases By Subject
Click on the General Databases category; choose Opposing Viewpoints In Context

Enter text here to begin searching for your topic.

Or, click on one of these existing topics
Viewing Your Results

Clicking on the subject American Housing Collapse returned these results:

The Viewpoints tab displays pro and con opinion pieces about your issue. Click the Academic Journals tab to view scholarly in-depth articles about the issue. Click the Websites tab to view relevant web sites related to your issue.

NOTE: If no results were found for a tab, the tab text appears grayed out.

Each topic has an overview article and an Expert Picks section with different opinions on issues relevant to the topic.
Each topic also has separate sections allowing you to view more information including reference works, news, magazines, academic journal, statistics and selected web sites.
Citing Information from Opposing Viewpoints in Context

Use this sample citation to cite information from Opposing Viewpoints in Context in APA format:

Retrieved from Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center database.

Getting More Help

Stop by the library and have a librarian show you how to use Opposing Viewpoints in Context.

Or, call (414) 382-6062 to speak to a librarian.

You can also go to http://depts.alverno.edu/library/ask.html and submit a question using the library’s e-mail service.