

Posting Date: March 2023

Position: Adjunct Instructor – Spanish Language and Cultures

Department: World Languages

Hours per Week: 20-24 hours

Founded in 1887, Alverno College is a four-year, Catholic liberal arts college for undergraduate women sponsored by the School Sisters of St. Francis. The college also offers a robust array of graduate and degree completion programs for women and men. Student learning and personal and professional development are the central focus of everyone in the Alverno College community. As Wisconsin's first designated Hispanic-Serving Institution, Alverno enrolls a highly diverse student body of virtually every demographic and experience. It is an institution that has revered tradition and encouraged innovation for more than 130 years.

The College is seeking applicants for a part-time adjunct instructor located in Milwaukee, WI.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

*The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive.
Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.*

This is a part-time adjunct instructor position in the World Languages department/Humanities division of the college.

The instructor will teach, assess, and develop curriculum in World Languages for undergraduate courses including, but not limited to, beginning, intermediate, and advanced Spanish grammar, Spanish conversation and composition, and seminars in advanced topics of Spanish or Latin American culture, literature, and civilization in a variety of modalities (i.e., face-to-face, hybrid, and/or online). Additionally, the instructor will participate in orientation and professional development as required by the department and/or college.

For the fall 2023 semester, the instructor would teach SLC 103 – Beginning Spanish I (Mondays and Wednesdays) and SLC 203 – Intermediate Spanish I (Tuesdays and Thursdays) in an online synchronous format from 5:10 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Qualifications and Education

Primary areas of expertise should be in Spanish or Latin American culture, language, literature, linguistics, pedagogy, second language acquisition, or a related field. Experience in other languages, faculty-led travel abroad, and/or translation and interpretation is desirable for the position but not required. Experience with learning management software (LMS) and computer-based instructional tools is also desirable, as is familiarity with Wisconsin DPI licensure requirements.

Successful candidates must have a commitment to teaching excellence at the college level and promoting diversity, equity, inclusion, and cultural humility in an educational and work environment. In addition, they must possess the ability to relate well to students, a willingness to work in a highly collaborative environment, and agree to contribute to the College's strategic plan of inclusion.

Master's degree is required. Ph.D. or near completion is preferred.
