

Posting Date: October, 2021

Position: Assistant Professor– Graduate Psychology

Department: School of Professional Studies

Hours per Week: Full-time

Founded in 1887, Alverno College is a four-year, Catholic liberal arts college for undergraduate women sponsored by the School Sisters of St. Francis. The college also offers a robust array of graduate and degree completion programs for women and men. Student learning and personal and professional development are the central focus of everyone in the Alverno College community. As Wisconsin's first designated Hispanic-Serving Institution, Alverno enrolls a highly diverse student body of virtually every demographic and experience. It is an institution that has revered tradition and encouraged innovation for more than 130 years.

The Department of Community Psychology seeks applicants for a full-time ten-month faculty position as an Assistant Professor beginning in the 2021-2022 academic year. Our department is dedicated to identifying a colleague to support our mission of creating a program defined by its non-traditional student body and holistic approach to client care in which individuals are seen in the context of their community. Moreover, we are looking for a team member who will join in the department's commitment to preparing culturally responsive counselors.

At Alverno College, full-time employees are eligible for, health, dental, vision, disability, and retirement plan enrollment for employees and eligible dependents. Tuition benefits are available for employees and qualified dependents.

Salary and academic rank will be commensurate with qualifications, education, and experience.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

*The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive.
Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.*

All Psychology faculty at Alverno College collaborate in curriculum development, teaching, learning, assessment, and program evaluation within Psychology and the curriculum at large. This includes instructional and administrative duties as necessary and assigned. Primary responsibilities include:

- Teach a range of courses in our Master of Science in Community Psychology program. The faculty teaching load will require the teaching of theory and clinical supervision courses. Faculty members will also have the opportunity to teach in their interests within the program.
- Advise graduate students.
- Serve and collaborate in departmental and cross-departmental committees.
- Engage in scholarship activities related to teaching and counseling practice.

Qualifications and Education

- Doctoral degree in Psychology, Counselor Education or related Psychology field required.
- Licensed as a Licensed Professional Counselor, Psychologist, or other mental health provider.
- Background check required.
- Strong organizational skills and the ability to professionally communicate with students, faculty and staff.
- Experience and ease with teaching and learning in multiple modalities including in online and hybrid contexts.
- Willingness to learn and apply Alverno's outcomes-based approach to teaching and learning.

Successful candidates will have a demonstrated commitment to promoting diversity, inclusion, and multicultural competence in an educational and work environment and must be willing to contribute to the College's strategic plan of inclusion.

How to Apply

Apply on-line at <https://www.alverno.edu/jobs/apply/login.php>
