

Posting Date: May, 2022

Position: Assistant Professor of Business-Accounting

Department: Business Division

Hours per Week: 40

Founded in 1887, Alverno College is a four-year, Catholic liberal arts college for undergraduate women sponsored by the School Sisters of St. Francis. The college also offers a robust array of graduate and degree completion programs for women and men. Student learning and personal and professional development are the central focus of everyone in the Alverno College community. As Wisconsin's first designated Hispanic-Serving Institution, Alverno enrolls a highly diverse student body of virtually every demographic and experience. It is an institution that has revered tradition and encouraged innovation for more than 130 years.

The Business Division is seeking applicants for a full-time, ten-month faculty position as an Assistant Professor of Business with an Accounting specialization beginning in the 2022-23 academic year. The position requires the applicant to have an Accounting and/or Finance specialization to lead curriculum and teach primarily in the undergraduate program with some teaching responsibilities in Alverno's MBA program. This appointment is an exempt position and will be administered through an initial rolling contract (two-year probationary) with renewal under a standard rolling contract every three years after the probationary period. A rolling contract may, with appropriate approval, be converted to a tenure track position if eligible and approved by the Chief Academic Officer. Salary and academic rank will be commensurate with qualifications, education, and experience. Alverno College health, disability, and retirement plan enrollment is available to full time employees and eligible dependents. Tuition benefits are available for employees and qualified dependents.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

*The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive.
Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.*

Contract begins August 1, 2022.

- Responsible for teaching financial and managerial accounting courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels in an innovative and ability-based curriculum that emphasizes active student learning and instructor feedback on performance.
- Collaborating as part of an innovative and diverse business faculty inspired to provide transformative learning opportunities that prepare students for a variety of rewarding careers in the business field.
- Departmental responsibilities include student advising, on-going curriculum development, and participation in college-wide faculty development meetings and experiences.
- Engage in scholarly practices that develop teaching practice.
- Engage with current and prospective students through activities such as connection with student groups, attendance at college-sponsored events, or recruitment events.

Successful candidates should highlight any specific experiences and expertise related to supporting a diverse and inclusive educational community. Willingness to contribute to the College's strategic plan of inclusion is essential.

Qualifications and Education

- Doctorate in Accounting field, Master's Degree in Accounting, or MBA with an Accounting focus of at least 16 graduate credits in Accounting. CPA or CMA preferred.
- Three to five years of relevant industry experience in either public or managerial accounting required.
- Prior teaching experience is preferred.

How to Apply

Apply on-line at <https://www.alverno.edu/jobs/apply/login.php>

Please attach your cover letter, resume, and list of references to the online application.

Review of applications will begin on May 1, 2022.

Alverno College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and committed to workplace diversity