

Position:	Adjunct Instructor of Community Engagement & Activism
Department:	Multidisciplinary Department	Hours per Week:	Part-time
Reports To:	David C. Brooker	Posting Date:	May, 2025

Founded in 1887, Alverno College is a four-year, Catholic liberal arts college for undergraduate women sponsored by the School Sisters of St. Francis. The college also offers a robust array of graduate and degree completion programs for women and men. Student learning and personal and professional development at the center focus of everyone in the Alverno College community. As Wisconsin's first designated Hispanic-Serving Institution, Alverno enrolls a highly diverse student body of virtually every demographic and experience. It is an institution that has revered tradition and encouraged innovation for more than 130 years.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

*The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive.
Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.*

All Community Engagement & Activism instructors at Alverno College collaborate with the department in ensuring quality teaching, learning and assessment. Primary duties and responsibilities include:

- Teach undergraduate courses in Community Engagement & Activism, particularly CENA 101 (Introduction to Community Activism).
- Assess students based on course learning outcomes.
- Develop and revise curriculum as needed and in collaboration with the program director.
- Complete all required course reporting and administration.
- Use Alverno's course management system to share course resources and assess student work.

Qualifications

The successful candidate will be an individual with undergraduate teaching experience, as well as a familiarity with political activism and getting young people involved in activism. A commitment to teaching within an innovative, outcome-based curriculum is required.

In addition, the following qualifications are sought for all Adjunct faculty:

- Strong communication skills with faculty, staff, students, and potential students.
- Must have demonstrated leadership abilities and an understanding of student development, including the ability to balance student needs and take on an institutional perspective.
- Strong commitment to quality teaching in the liberal arts and to the social justice mission of the college.
- Must be able to work during times when courses are scheduled.

Working Conditions

- Community Engagement & Activism classes are generally taught In person

Education

- A Master's degree is required. A Ph.D. in a field related to Community Engagement & Activism is preferred.

How to Apply

Apply on-line at <https://www.alverno.edu/jobs/apply/login.php>

Please attach a cover letter addressing essential qualifications, teaching experience, and any plans for scholarship and professional development Curriculum Vitae (CV), a statement of teaching philosophy that incorporates commitment to issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion in teaching.

Additional materials may be requested if selected for an on-campus interview:

- Two references that can be contacted with at least 2 years of knowledge of candidate in an academic or workplace environment
- Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Alverno College will provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities. If you require accommodations during the application or interview process, please contact HR@alverno.edu.

Alverno College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and committed to workplace diversity