Position: Adjunct Instructor of Art Therapy
Department: School of Arts and Sciences
Hours per Week: Part-time

Founded in 1887, Alverno College is a four-year, Catholic liberal arts college for undergraduate women sponsored by the School Sisters of St. Francis. The college also offers a robust array of graduate and degree completion programs for women and men. Student learning and personal and professional development are the central focus of everyone in the Alverno College community. As Wisconsin’s first designated Hispanic-Serving Institution, Alverno enrolls a highly diverse student body of virtually every demographic and experience. It is an institution that has revered tradition and encouraged innovation for more than 130 years.

The College is seeking applicants for a part-time Adjunct Instructor of Art Therapy position to teach an adaptive field experience for art education and art therapy students.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive. Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.

Teach class/classes as listed below:

Field Experience in the Adaptive K12 Art Education Setting (AE387) and Adaptive Field Experience in Art Therapy (AT387): in which students design and effectively facilitate meaningful creative arts processes using developmentally appropriate materials; evaluate and apply adaptive learning/creative theory with individuals from a variety of backgrounds, interests and abilities; and reflect on the cultural/social influences of group dynamics while assessing the affective components of one’s own and others behavior in the adaptive education or community arts setting.

In addition to observing and evaluating the student’s performance both on-site and in the classroom setting, the course instructor is responsible to provide weekly (in-class) supervision to address concerns, accomplishments, goals, and the students’ implementation of creative art processes at their field site.

Qualifications and Education
