

Posting Date: April, 2019

Position: Assistant Professor – Graduate Psychology

Department: School of Professional Studies

Hours per Week: Full-time

Alverno College is a private liberal arts college with an internationally acclaimed ability-based program and diverse student body. Our low instructor-to-student ratio and collaborative faculty contribute to a positive learning environment. We provide students with real-life, hands-on experiences in the classroom, in study abroad opportunities and in professional internships related to their major. These experiences, among others, have resulted in Alverno College being recognized as the 3rd “Most Innovative School” among Midwest Regional Universities in U.S. News & World Report’s 2019 America’s Best Colleges guidebook. Alverno has also consistently ranked highly in the Midwest in the “Strong Commitment to Teaching” category.

The Department of Graduate Psychology seeks applicants for a full-time ten month faculty position as an Assistant Professor beginning in the 2019-2020 academic year. This is a full time, faculty exempt position contingent on funding. Salary and academic rank will be commensurate with qualifications, education, and experience. Alverno College health, disability, and retirement plan enrollment is available to full time employees and eligible dependents. Tuition benefits are available for employees and qualified dependents.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

*The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive.
Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.*

All Psychology faculty at Alverno College collaborate in curriculum development, teaching, learning and assessment, and program evaluation within Psychology and the curriculum at large. Primary duties and responsibilities include:

- Teach a range of courses in our Master of Science in Community Psychology program. This includes courses that are counseling-focused, such as assessment and interviewing skills.
- Advise graduate students as needed.
- Serve and collaborate in departmental and cross-departmental committees.
- Engage in scholarship activities related to teaching and counseling practice.
- Actively participate in national counseling organizations.

Successful candidates will have a demonstrated commitment to promoting diversity, inclusion, and multicultural competence in an educational and work environment and must be willing to contribute to the College’s strategic plan of inclusion.

Qualifications and Education

- PhD in Psychology or related field required.
- Licensed as a Licensed Professional Counselor or a Psychologist.
