Position: Instructor – Administrative Leadership (Education in a Democracy: Equity and Diversity)

Department: School of Professional Studies Hours per Week: Part-time

Alverno College is a private liberal arts college with an internationally acclaimed ability-based program and diverse student body. Our low instructor-to-student ratio and collaborative faculty contribute to a positive learning environment. We provide students with real-life, hands-on experiences in the classroom, in study abroad opportunities and in professional internships related to their major. These experiences, among others, have resulted in Alverno College being ranked higher than any other college in Wisconsin in its “Strong Commitment to Teaching” category for the ninth consecutive year.

The College is seeking applicants for a part-time Instructor of Administrative Leadership for the School of Professional Studies.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

*The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive.
Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.*

Teach one course as described below for professional education students pursuing a Principal, Director of Pupil Services and Special Education and/or Director of Instruction license in Wisconsin. Students may be enrolled in a Master’s program at Alverno or have already completed a Master’s Degree and are completing certification for a Wisconsin license. Course meets every other week on Thursday evenings during Fall term.

Administrative Leadership 665: Education in a Democracy: Equity and Diversity

Students examine the interrelationships between and among democracy, schools, and education, both historically and in contemporary society. Taking a problem-based approach, they develop case studies to explore the impact of community expectations and needs on educational decisions. Using varied research approaches, they map diverse perspectives and their implications for decision-making. Reflecting on both research literature and their own experiences, they develop models for practice in professional school roles.

Qualifications

- Familiarity and/or experience with course content
- Background in Administrative Leadership or Education
- Commitment to creating leaders for equity-based leadership practice.
- Strong commitment to teaching excellence and desire to work in a highly collaborative environment
- Preference given to interest and background in serving students in high needs areas and environments
- Preference given to candidates with background in teaching at the post- secondary level.

Successful candidates will have a demonstrated commitment to promoting diversity, inclusion, and multicultural competence in an educational and work environment and must be willing to contribute to the College’s strategic plan of inclusion.
