

Posting Date: February, 2019

Position: INSTRUCTOR OF COMMUNITY PSYCHOLOGY

Department: Community Psychology

Hours per Week: Part-time

Primary Duties and Responsibilities

*The following information is not meant to be all-inclusive.
Other duties and responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.*

Contract begins May 2019. The position is per semester based on the needs of the college.

The ideal candidate for this position will be prepared to teach at the graduate level. This would include courses in the Masters of Science in Community Psychology program, particularly in the licensed counselor track of this program. Experience with diverse populations is desirable. Departmental responsibilities include using learning system module, teaching assigned class, assessing students, responding to student needs, providing feedback, and attend training sessions.

Qualifications

Prior teaching experience at the college level is a plus. A commitment to teaching within an innovative, outcome-based curriculum, and a willingness to work in a highly collaborative environment is required. Relevant clinical experience is also highly beneficial.

Education

Master's Degree is required. Candidates who are nearing completion of their doctoral work may also be considered.
